Refit for a Queen.

Enhancing your experience aboard Cunard's Queen Victoria in 2017.

The quality of your experience with Cunard means everything to us. We wish to ensure it's fit for a queen. Or a king. That you feel like royalty: free to do as you please in sumptuous style.

Cunard also moves with the times, which is why the time has come to enhance your experience even further on board Queen Victoria.

From 5 May 2017 to 4 June 2017, she will enter dry dock for a partial refit at the Fincantieri shipyard in Palermo, Sicily. This will comprise an upgraded and increased choice of suites, staterooms, Britannia Club dining, a broader and more distinct bar offering, a transformed sun deck, and several other new features to be revealed soon.

People have asked why Queen Victoria is being refitted when she already meets every expectation; she simply prefers to exceed them.

Grand designs.

Redesigning the Grand Suites aboard Cunard's Queen Victoria.

Cunard Grand Suites are a sanctuary of space and style, well-loved by thousands of guests. So we thought we'd redesign them and refine the experience even further.

Following Queen Victoria's refit this May, guests wishing to escape or entertain within their Cunard Grand Suite will discover a host of enhancements. These will include a clever configuration of furniture to maximise the comfort and convenience of this accommodation, together with refreshed interior design.

The many other appeals of a Cunard Grand Suite include:

- ◆ Floor to ceiling windows and doors
- ◆ Separate service entrance and hospitality preparation area
- ◆ Separate snug room with TV
- ◆ Beautifully-appointed lounge
- ◆ Master bathroom with sea view
- ◆ A second bathroom with guest access
- ◆ Bedroom TV that folds down from the ceiling
- ◆ A walk-in wardrobe with additional storage units
- ◆ Generous dual aspect balcony.
